Unique riverside venues for celebrations, special occasions,
and business events

St Hilda's College
UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

"Thank you and all the staff of St Hilda's for the most wonderful wedding on Saturday. The whole place was gorgeous, the staff were magnificent, and you even managed to control the weather!"

Mrs Langford-Powell

St Hilda's College stands on the banks of the River Cherwell, close to the centre of Oxford. In a stunning and picturesque setting, the College offers a wide range of outstanding rooms and memorable meeting spaces to complement any occasion.

Whether you are hosting a meeting in one of our many function rooms, a concert in our auditorium, a conference in our rooftop suite, or making use of our grounds for a birthday, wedding, or family celebration, we have the services, technology, and amenities to deliver your high quality event.

From traditional oak-panelled rooms, to contemporary open spaces, St Hilda's has a range of uniquely impressive venues that can be tailored to your exact needs. Our rooftop terrace, riverside pavilion, and auditorium can accommodate events attracting a large number of guests, meanwhile, smaller, private dining and meeting rooms offer more intimate settings.

St Hilda's gardens and grounds provide a beautiful setting for any event, combining the ambience of the riverside with the backdrop of Oxford's dreaming spires.

All events are meticulously managed by our in-house team of experienced professionals who offer a discreetly attentive service, to meet your needs.

Furthermore, the quality of our catering is recognised as amongst the best in Oxford. Our chefs work painstakingly to provide a range of menus that will impress even the most discerning palate.

St Hilda's College is delighted to offer:

- * Meeting rooms and event spaces to cater for up to 200 guests

"I wanted to say how pleased we were with the arrangements for my wife's birthday lunch. The tables and the buffet were beautifully set out, the St Hilda's people were charming and helpful, and the food was really excellent."
